

The AMMRF and Leica invite you to a

SUPER resolution workshop

October 12-14, 2015

Learn the theory behind 3-dimensional ground state depletion (GSD3D) and stimulated emission depletion (STED3x) and how to prepare samples for the latest super resolution technologies and techniques.

Hosted by Australian Centre for Microscopy & Microanalysis (ACMM), at the Charles Perkins Centre, University of Sydney register now!

The first 20 Registrants will get hands-on
GSD and STED 3X training

Huygens Base Package for Confocal
15 % discount for the first 30 Leica
confocal customers to register²

Program¹

Day 1: Talks by expert users and
Leica STED specialist Ulf Schwarz (Germany)

Day 2: Talk by Huygens software specialist
Remko Dijkstra (Netherlands)

Days 2-3: Hands on GSD & STED

1. The program can be compressed into 2 days (12-13 Oct) for registrants from out of town. Lunch & morning tea are provided on Day 1. The program is subject to change.

2. Terms & conditions apply to discount offer.

Registration $50

online at: sydney.OneStopSecure.com/onestopweb/super

